BILLY HUGHES FEATURES SHOW AT BOOKER WASHINGTON

Billy Hughes, the wonderfully funny comedian, easily features the four act vaudeville bill at the Booker Washington Theatre this week. Hughes has a distinctively original sense of fun and a talent that never fails to register loudly on the ticklebone of his audience. He is a string to pull for fun long after he has made his final "top off". His three song numbers are "That's The Way Life Goes", "The Lines on Parade", and "Hill Frog Hop". They are all knock out.

Another single performer who is going big is Booker, "The Plunderer". This jazz manipulator of the keys is in a class by himself. If he waits for some of the local talent to meet his challenge for a piano playing competition, he'll surely share to suit. For no one around these dignities has shown anything to equal his work. Walker and Johnson have a lively repertoire of songs and dances and rapid fire let-a-go.

Booker and Parker, a sister team, dance, sing and make merry in different fashion.

Pathe Comedy Picture
"The United States" is the first of two comedies by Harris Dickson, from his famous stories in the Saturday Evening Post. It will be shown at the Booker Washington this Friday and Saturday. It is an all-around comedy with a higher class than others previously shown on the screen and the first All-United film produced by Pathe.

Music Comedy Amos Week
The Albert Theatre Company will continue the Booker Washington Theatre Monday for a week's stay. The offering will be a musical comedy musical comedy featuring Albert and Alice Gains and William Smedley, a wonderful singer. A real up-to-date fully show with pretty girls and good comedy is promised.

COMEDY AT THE PENITENT

The Washington Theatre announces a complete departure from its usual picture policy for Christmas week. The Andrews and Higgins Stock Company of 12 performers are booked for a week in musical comedy, beginning Sunday. The comedy is known by the name of "The Penitent". It is a story of a man who is a convict in the penitentiary and who is helped by a woman who is a convict in the penitentiary. The program will also include special feature photographs.

THE PICTURE THEATRES

"The Sting Of The Lash" and "No Woman Knows" at Debutante

Pathe Franchise in "The Sting of the Lash" will be the feature at the Debutante Theatre on Sunday and Monday. The movie is a story of a man who is a convict in the penitentiary and who is helped by a woman who is a convict in the penitentiary. The program will also include special feature photographs.

"At The End Of The World" "Rough Diamond" at Debutante

Robertson-Cole presents MAY MARSH in "Nobody's Kid". Adapted from the novel "Nobody's Kid" by May Marsh. It follows the life and adventures of a orphan whose heart is torn and whose love for a woman is torn. The program will also include special feature photographs.

swings into fragments to prevent them from falling like molten lava. They are rescued and later lose track of each other. One becomes the governor of a state while the other is a rancher. How they meet and what follows makes up one of the most thrilling stories ever screened.

"No Woman Knows" will be featured at the "Cameo" at next Tuesday and Friday. The story is that of a typical American family, owning a small store and living in a provincial mid-western town. It traces from the mountain tops to intense emotional feeling to the quiet valleys of lonely realism, from life to the intricate expression of extreme dramatic significance. Through it all runs a tender theme of divine usefulness and the self-sacrificing instincts of mother and sister toward theme of universal interest and import.

"Black Roses" and "Why Girls Leave Home" Special Olympia Features

"Black Roses," featuring Sessue Hayakawa, will be the Olympia Theatre's special this Saturday. During the course of the production Hayakawa is seen in three distinct characterizations, first as a happy-go-lucky gambler on the estate of a millionaire, next as a hardened criminal and finally as a murderer he is convicted of a murder he never committed, and finally as a Chinese prince who succeeds in finding and punishing his betrayer. The story is one of the highest circles of society where he succeeds in finding and punishing his betrayer. The story is one of the highest circles of society where he succeeds in finding and punishing his betrayer.

"Riding With Death," "Adventures of Tarzan" and "Hell's Border" At Cameo

Buck Jones in "Riding With Death" Lincoln in "Adventures of Tarzan" will be featured at the Cameo Theatre this Saturday. The last week in wild animal thrillers. In the first episode Lincoln as Tarzan again meets Numa, the lion tamer, the elephant, Joe Martin, the ape, the ape clan and a host of wild animals in their jungle life. Many remarkable and exciting scenes between Tarzan and those who have come to fight with armed hands. A lion, paws up a valiant struggle against a horde of wild apes and eagles in a terrific battle with two of his enemies. A climax which will lift Olympia audiences to their feet. The picture is a real treat for those who love wild animal stories. Tarzan, bearing him to the ground. William Fairbanks in a story of the wild and woolly west. "Hell's Border" will be featured at the Cameo on Sunday. This picture features a lot to actually ride his horse over a log that opens a deep chasm.

"The Devil Within" and "Isabel" Features At Lincoln

Dustin Farnum will be seen at the Lincoln this Saturday in "The Devil Within." This story reveals the popular star as a brutal neo-captain who brings down the curse of South American savages upon his head. The curse awakens works for years. His rebellion must precede the cure of South American savages upon his head. The curse awakens works for years. His rebellion must precede the cure of South American savages upon his head. ## CHURCHES

Methodist. Mark 1:3. was chosen as his subject. "A Christian Day" was the subject. He referred to the surveyor of land to illustrate the way in which Christians must proceed for the Kingdom of God. First, the surveyor only down the fence, dynamites the stumps and burn them in order to clear the field for use. So it is with the Christians. We can cut down false doctrines, dynamite evil thoughts and burn up all manner of sin with the Word of God. It is our duty to do so. He did not quit giving his practical lecture to the young people and to mothers and fathers on morality and right living. He said, "A Christian is like an engine going up-hill. It goes very slow and yet it goes forward. If it goes only one mile a day, it will surely reach its destination." He said further, "That the young men and women of today are like an engine going down hill at breakneck speed, indulging recklessly in the pleasures of the world and will suddenly reach their destination. Where? In destruction."

Episcopal. John prepared the way of the Lord," he continued, "we must prepare the way for his Kingdom by saving men from sin by means of the gospel." Rev. Lane F. Chaves, pastor; W. M. Watkins, reporter.

GOOD SAMARITAN M. E.

1168 W. Belle Pl.

Sunday was a day of spiritual feasting. Sunday School at 9:30 a.

m. 11:15 a. m. Rev. J. B. Reynolds preached from 1 Cor. 2:9 for 45 minutes. He held the congregation spellbound with his masterly sermon. All were made to rejoice. At 9:30 p. m., the E. L. had its service which was most interesting. Special feature of the service was the singing of the hymn, "Praise Him, O Praise Him," on Xmas morning. The E. L. will have a special service after which they will have a special offering. Everybody welcome.

LANE TABERNACLE ANNUAL GREETINGS

It is with great joy and profound thankfulness to God, that the official board of Lane Tabernacle, C. M. E. Church in St. Louis, remains true to a time honored custom, and through its trustees brother bishops Christmas

Greetings to its great host of members and friends. To the president of the Board, the Superintendant of the Sunday School, all church leaders and members in the Lane Tabernacle, members in care of the above named officials, together with our veteran pastors, Rev. N. E. Smith, we desire to say a successful year's work. God rendereth to every man according to his work and you shall be rewarded for every effort put forward.

There has been a prodigious church building. The blessing of health and happiness. God has so wonderfully showered upon us. Today we thank God for the gift of Christmas. We thank Him for the many souls we through Him have been able to save; we thank Him for the many souls we in position to take care of both the sick and needy of our church. As if there is any one here who is not a member of our church, let us say to God: God to guide our footsteps in this direction.

Although the industrial depression extended to the poor of our church, we have our part and share. We have seen that we have been able to do more than we could have dreamed of doing. For Christ's extended and education we have given freely. We thank God for the help which we gather at our altar for other souls in need of help. We thank God for the confidence which we have in Him.
